FISCAL IMPACT STATEMENT

LS 6997

BILL NUMBER: HB 1545

NOTE PREPARED: Jan 14, 2007

BILL AMENDED:

SUBJECT: Death Penalty.

FIRST AUTHOR: Rep. Goodin

FIRST SPONSOR:

BILL STATUS: As Introduced

FUNDS AFFECTED: X GENERAL
DEDICATED FEDERAL

IMPACT: State & Local

Summary of Legislation: This bill has the following provisions:

- A. It requires the state to seek a death sentence if a defendant murdered a person less than 18 years of age and the defendant intentionally killed the victim while committing or attempting to commit: (1) child molesting; (2) criminal deviate conduct; (3) kidnapping; (4) rape; or (5) criminal confinement.
- B. It allows the state to seek a death sentence or sentence of life imprisonment for a person who commits murder while committing or attempting to commit criminal confinement.

Effective Date: July 1, 2007.

Explanation of State Expenditures: Summary: State expenditures depend on the outcome of the criminal trial. If a prosecuting attorney requests the death penalty and the court imposes a death sentence on a defendant, then state expenditures will be less than when a prosecuting attorney seeks and the court imposes life imprisonment without parole. And a determinate sentence of 65 years where the offender is released after 32½ years for good behavior requires less expenditures than the other two sentences. However, the combined costs for the state agencies and county governments for a death penalty case, even when the offender is executed, exceeds the costs of a trial where the most serious sentence would be life without parole or a determinate sentence of 65 years.

Since this bill would require a prosecuting attorney to seek the death penalty when the murder victim is younger than 18 years of age and one of five other aggravating crimes was committed, both the state and county would incur significantly more expenditures in criminal defense and jury costs in these types of homicides.

Background Information: In the following analysis, LSA staff compared the costs that the state assumes for state assistance to the counties in the trial stage, and the staff costs during direct appeal, post conviction relief, and federal habeas corpus review. The average age of 84 offenders who were sentenced to death was 30 at the time when a request for a death penalty was made against them.

LSA assumed that convicted offenders would:

- spend an average period of 16 years on death row before being executed if the death penalty was imposed;
- serve 32½ years of a sentence if sentenced to 65 years in prison since most offenders reduce their sentences by one day for each day that they comply with prison facility codes of behavior;
- remain in DOC facilities until the age of 77 if sentenced to life without parole.

Because these costs occur at different points in time, a net present value was prepared for each cost stream assuming an annual inflation rate of 5%. The following table presents the net present value of these costs.

Post Trial Costs to the State of Sentencing Options for a 30-Year-Old Offender Sentenced for Aggravated Murder
		Net Present Value for:
Sentence	Number of Years of Incarceration	State Expenditures	State and County Expenditures
Death Penalty	16*	$592,858	$758,243
Life Without Parole	47	$616,756	$657,028
65 Years with 50% Credit Time	32.5	$494,507	$534,779
* Based on 15 offenders sentenced to death who appealed execution and were executed.

The following variables are included in this analysis.

Cost of Health Care – It is assumed that the health care costs rise substantially in the later years of an offender's life. Consequently, the costs to the Department of Correction (DOC) will increase substantially for older offenders. The data in the following table was used to account for the added cost to DOC for the later years of an offender who is sentenced to life without parole.

Estimated Costs of Health Care by Age Group
Age Group	Estimated Cost
18 - 24	$ 1,095
25 - 44	$ 1,844
45 - 64	$ 4,319
over 65	$ 8,589

Cost of Incarceration – The average annual expenditure for housing offenders (not including health care costs) is based on the average annual adult institution cost in FY 2006 of $22,734 less the average annual health care costs of $2,029.

Added Costs for Financial Assistance At Trial - The Public Defense Fund reimburses 50% of the authorized costs to counties when a death penalty trial is occurring and 40% when a noncapital case is being tried. The costs of a death penalty trial are higher because two attorneys are needed and two different trials occur.

The following shows the average costs incurred by the Public Defense Fund for death penalty and life without parole cases.

Cost Components for Murder Trials
	Death Penalty	Life Without Parole
Attorneys and Related Costs	$107,804	$27,370

Public Defense Fund expenditures for FY 1996 through FY 2002 for partially reimbursing counties for the costs of capital cases are reported for each fiscal year between 1998 and 2006.

Reimbursements for Capital Cases by Fiscal Year
1998	1999	2000	2001	2002	2003	2004	2005	2006
$799,450	$526,512	$378,209	$712,055	$473,317	$342,464	$585,981	$499,488	$633,541

The Public Defense Fund also partially reimburses counties for the costs of noncapital cases as reported for the fiscal years between 1998 and 2006.

Reimbursements (in Millions) for Noncapital Cases By Fiscal Year
1998	1999	2000	2001	2002	2003	2004	2005	2006
$1.03	$2.18	$3.30	$3.66	$4.86	$5.37	$6.03	$9.34	$8.97

The Public Defense Fund receives an annual statutory allotment of $3.4 M derived from a transfer from the state General Fund under IC 33-19-7-5 beginning in FY 2005 and a $4.4 M transfer beginning in FY 2006.

Added Costs of Appeals - There are three general stages of review of criminal cases at the state and federal level: direct appeal and post conviction relief at the state level and habeas corpus at the federal level. The Office of the Attorney General represents the state in all three stages of review in death penalty cases, and in direct appeal and habeas corpus if a determinate sentence is imposed. The State Public Defender's office represents convicted offenders requesting indigent counsel in post conviction relief.

The following costs were used to compare the costs between these sentencing options.

State Agency	Function	Death Penalty Trial	Life Without Parole
State Public Defender	Represents convicted offenders requesting indigent counsel in post conviction relief	$191,182	$3,724
Office of the Attorney General	Represents the state in all three stages of review in death penalty cases	$72,503	$12,004
Department of Correction	Execution costs and annual per diem and medical costs	$20,588 for execution	Annual per diem and medical costs
State Police	Security and appeals at execution	$4,012

The following shows the stages of review once the death penalty trial has been completed.

Review Level	Court of Review	Issues Permitted To Be Raised
Direct Appeal	State Supreme Court	Defendant required to show that what happened at trial was legally erroneous. Defendant may not present new evidence.
Post Conviction Relief (PCR)	Trial Court	Newly discovered evidence such as DNA and other issues may be presented.
Subsequent Appeal of PCR	State Supreme Court	Decides on the evidence presented at the PCR review.
Federal Habeas Corpus Review	Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals	Federal courts may not grant relief if the claim was waived in the state court or if the issue was not presented or properly presented in state court.

Explanation of State Revenues:

Explanation of Local Expenditures: Under current law, the prosecuting attorney would not be able to request either the death penalty or life without parole unless one of 16 aggravating circumstances under IC 35-50-2-9 could be cited when a murder occurred.

Background Information: Of the three possible sentencing options for murder, the death penalty is generally the most expensive for trial courts to conduct because two attorneys are required to represent the accused, and a bifurcated trial is conducted to determine guilt or innocence and whether a sentence of death is warranted. Life without parole is the next most expensive option because, while two attorneys are not required for legal representation, a bifurcated trial is required to determine guilt or innocence and then whether a sentence of life without parole is warranted. Determinate sentencing of between 45 and 65 years is the least expensive option because one trial is conducted and two attorneys are not required to represent the defendant.

The following table summarizes the difference between these three options.

Sentencing Option	Number of Defense Attorneys Needed	Type of Trial Conducted
Death Penalty	Two	Bifurcated - one to determine guilt or innocence and one to determine whether death penalty is warranted; a sentencing hearing is separate.
Life Without Parole	One	Bifurcated - one to determine guilt or innocence and one to determine whether death penalty is warranted; a sentencing hearing is separate.
Determinate Sentence Between 45 and 65 Years	One	A single trial to determine guilt or innocence; a sentencing hearing is separate.

Consequently, the costs of legal representation for a case where the most serious sentence is between 45 and 65 years would likely be lower than the costs of a case involving life without parole.

No information is available on the costs of murder cases in which the most serious sentence was between 45 and 65 years of incarceration. However, at the request of the Criminal Law Study Commission, Legislative Services Agency staff compared the costs of death penalty cases and cases in which life without parole was the most serious outcome that could occur. The following table displays the cost components for a "typical" death penalty trial and a trial where life without parole is the most serious sentence.

Cost Components for Murder Trials:
	Death Penalty	Life Without Parole
Attorneys and Related Costs*	$107,804	$27,370
Jury and Related Costs	$46,375	$10,150
Cost of Appeals	$54,355	$5,466
Prosecuting Attorney	$2,340	$2,948
County Sheriff	$8,472	$4,380
Total Costs	$219,346	$50,314
*Net Costs After Reimbursement From Public Defense Fund

The cost of legal representation for a criminal defendant in a death penalty case is four times as expensive as the costs of a criminal trial in which the most serious sentence is life without parole. The costs of a trial where a determinate sentence is the most serious sentence is likely to be less than the costs of a trial in which life without parole is the most serious sentence.
